

Important Note If You Are Mailing Your Tithes and Offerings

Mail addressed to our street address is being forwarded to our post office box, however, we have found that there is a delay in that process. A number of people have called the accounting department concerned that we did not receive their tithes and offerings. We are receiving mail from the street address, but in order to expedite future contributions by mail, please send your gifts directly to First Baptist Church, P.O. Box 3888, Lafayette, LA 70502.

Remember you can also give digitally:

What's Number Nine?

The sermon series Tell It Again: Your Top Ten Childhood Bible Stories continues today. The sermon note Drawing Contest continues as well. Parents, make sure your child's name and age or grade is on the front of the drawing. Then take a photo of the drawing and text the photo to 337-247-6971. Please submit the drawing during the day Sunday.

Also, Zoom Sunday School classes continue with the series, Dealing with Messy Relationships. Today's topic is Encouragement,

Children's Choir Info

We now have a weekly music feature for children and preschoolers on our website. It presents some of the same songs children would be learning in choirs on Sunday afternoon. Look for it each Monday.

When Will We Reopen Church Buildings?

While we are anxious to get back into our church building and see each other again, we want to make sure that we are safe when we do that. So, as we move forward, we want to balance caution with our desire to get together. We are working as a church staff, talking to medical professionals, taking into consideration recommendations from our government officials, and trying to be sure we make good decisions about what we are going to be doing.

In the coming weeks, as we get more information, we will be communicating with you what is going to be happening. Just as the government and businesses will be opening in stages, we will be doing the same thing. We ask that you be flexible and patient as we reopen in the coming weeks.
